

Dear OLLI Members,

As 2016 nears its close, I'm reflecting on all the ways OLLI at UNC Asheville enriches my life and what it means to me. It has invigorated me through new friendships and new ideas. It has enriched my life through cultural events and thought-provoking speakers. In short, OLLI is a place where I feel at home.

I hope you too have been enriched in many of the same ways. During this season of thanksgiving, will you join me in honoring your OLLI experience with a gift to the annual fund? OLLI's Annual Fund helps fill the many gaps other resources just don't cover—scholarships, building improvements, special events and much more. You will make it possible for someone to attend classes who might not otherwise be able to afford it; help to fund a performance by a regional storyteller; and make the Reuter Center more accessible by improvements to our sound equipment.

Please take this opportunity to demonstrate what OLLI means to you through a gift to the annual fund. Join me now in making sure that all this and more will be here for you and future lifelong learners. Will you give a gift of $1,000, $500, $250, $100 or other amount to OLLI's 2016 Annual Fund? By making a gift you may honor an instructor who helped you see the world in a new way or show appreciation for someone you love. You can give online by clicking here or by check to OLLI c/o UNC Asheville Foundation, One University Heights, CPO 3800, Asheville, NC 28804. Every gift helps create a more inclusive and rewarding OLLI experience.

Thank you,

Catherine Jordan
Chair, Steering Council

P.S. Remember, contributions to OLLI's Annual Fund are tax deductible and may be eligible for a match by your former employer. Contact Ben Underwood to learn more 828-251-6016.
